Turner-Davis.

The friends and relatives of Mr. W. J. Davis and Miss Magdalene Turner were very much surprised when they were united in marriage June 17th. Mr. Davis is at home on a thirty day furlough from Newport, Rhode Island; he will return July 4th. Mrs. Davis will return to her former home in Leakeville, south Mississippi.

Capt. H. J. B. Lann.

One of Aberdeen's oldest and most respected citizens and business men died at his home in this city, June 21st. Capt. Lann was 87 years old, and because of his years and the physical infirmities incident to old age, had not acted for near a decade of years as manager of the Lann & Carter Hardware Co., an establishment founded by him, and one of the largest of its kind in North Mississippi.

He was a Confederate veteran, having served with distinction as Captain of Co. L., 42nd Mississippi Regiment during the war, making for himself an enviable record as a soldier.

As a citizen and leader in the affairs of his town and county, Capt. Lann's energies were directed towards the upbuilding and development of civic, moral and industrial enterprises. He promoted and organized the Monroe Banking & Trust Co., and served as its president as long as his health would permit. He was a member of the board of aldermen for a number of years, and the city administration during the term of his service was marked with unusual movement in the way of installing municipal improvements.

He is survived by a wife and four children, Miss Adella Lann, Kirby Lann and Mrs. J. W. Lauderdale, of Aberdeen, and Mrs. George D. Stephenson, of Holly Springs.

The funeral was held at his late home Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Revs. J. W. Fulford, of the Episcopal church, and Rev. C. C. Kiser, of the Baptist church, officiated. Interment was made in Odd Fellows' Rest.

Loyalty Gatherings July 4th.

It is the desire of the State Council of Defense that the people of each supervisor's district in counties of the State of Mississippi assemble in two places of each district on July 4th, 1918, to celebrate the independence of America and to profit by social mingling together in commemoration of the blessings of liberty secured to us henceforth from that day in 1776.

It is suggested that speakers be invited to address the people at each gathering and that the day be devoted to patriotic speeches promotive of loyalty.

As chairman of the Council of Defense for Monroe county, I suggest full compliance with the wishes of the State Council as above set forth.

Respectfully,

J. E. EVANS,

Chairman Council of Defense For Monroe County.

To the Voters of Monroe County: Pursuant to Section 3702, Code 1906, the Board of Election Commissioners of Monroe County, Miss., will meet on the third Monday of July, 1918, the 15th day of the month, in the office of the Circuit Clerk, to being registrar, to revise the registration books and poll books of Monroe county and register the names of all persons legally entitled to vote, and perform all other acts and duties incumbent on them. All interested persons take notice and act accordingly.

G. S. OLDFORD,

R. D. OBERMAIER,

E. T. ROBERTS,

Election Commissioners of Monroe County, Miss.

A Labor Proclamation.

The State of Mississippi. Executive Department, Jackson. Because of the necessity for a sane and proper consideration of certain grave problems which compel immediate action, I hereby urge all sheriffs, county superintendents of education, ministers of the gospel, mayors of municipalities, members of the state and county councils of defense, members of the legislature, representatives of labor, newspaper men, all State, county and municipal food and fuel administrators and representatives from all the essential industries, such as agriculture, manufacturing, ship building, transportation, timber, etc., to attend one of the meetings hereinafter named: In Jackson on July 1st, 1918. In Greenville, July 2nd, 1918. In Holly Springs, July 3, 1918. In Aberdeen July 4th, 1918. In Hattiesburg, July 5th, 1918. In Gulfport, July 6th, 1918.

For the purpose of discussing and devising ways and means of completing the cultivation and harvesting the crops of our State, and for the keeping in full operation of all the industries and enterprises necessary and essential to our government in winning the war. We have reached a time in our State and national life when no person should be idle. Every consumer should be producing, and no man, woman or child in our great State should be without his or her task. Truly, in this grave hour in the life of our common country, all should heed and heed the injunction: "Six days shalt thou labor." The hands and hearts of every liberty loving citizen man, woman or child, should turn to the task of producing something beneficial to our State, Nation and courageous allies, and especially in support and comfort of those brave young soldiers who are making the supreme sacrifice for us all.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed, this the 24th day of June, A. D. 1918.

THEO. G. BILBO, Governor.

By the Governor, J. W. POWER, Secretary of State.

Buying W. S. Stamps may possibly hurt, but what of the hurts of the men who fight and die for you? The Government expects you to Buy War Savings Stamps until it hurts.

"I Want Every American To Help Win The War"

President Wilson is calling on you. He wants you to buy War-Savings Stamps. It does not make any difference how many Liberty Bonds you have bought, the government wants you to buy War-Savings Stamps. You cannot win the war by talking. The war will not be won by excuses. The war must be won by every man, woman and child—by you.

You Must Save and Buy

W.S.S.
War Savings Stamps

The Kaiser is laughing at us. The Kaiser says it cannot be done. You must show him that it can. Every man, woman and child, white or black, every banker, merchant, farmer, wage earner, every American must buy War-Savings Stamps. Uncle Sam wants you to do it and the man who won't is a slacker. Sign the pledge that you will save a certain number of dollars between now and the end of the year.
